

Traveling to Far Off Places!

BCT's 2009/2010 MainStage Season

Narnia

A musical version of the classic C. S. Lewis 1950 novel The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe. With its focus on Literature, your students will be swept off to the magical land of Narnia, just inside the wardrobe, yet worlds away! This production offers a multitude of lessons incorporating the original text which appears on virtually every reading list across the country.

SCROOGE, THE MUSICAL

A musical version of the Charles Dickens's Victorian original tale, A Christmas Carol. With an attention on the Social Sciences, be prepared to travel back in time to the 1850's in Great Britain, over a century ago, yet timely as ever. This production offers possibilities of incorporating lessons focusing on the Industrial Revolution, its impact on the way people's lives were changed and how it affects us even today.

Zorro!

A play based on the 1919 novella The Curse of Capistrano by Johnston McCulley. Concentrating on Culture and History, your senses will be bombarded and delighted as you are immersed in exciting Hispanic music, dance, costumes and, of course, impressive action scenes with the "fox" himself, Zorro. Lesson plans focusing on Hispanic Culture and the History of settling the Missions of California will heighten the stage experience.

The Wizard of OZ

A play with music adapted from The Wonderful Wizard of Oz by L. Frank Baum. Emphasizing Life Skills, you will be magically transported with Dorothy and her beloved friends to the Land of OZ, with all of its color, funny characters and excitement! In the class you can explore character building and fostering positive relationships at school, work and home.

Black History Month Celebrated! BCT's MainStage 2010

JACKIE ROBINSON

A Comet Around the Diamond

A new play based on the life of legendary baseball player Jackie Robinson. Celebrating Black History Month, come along on the journey of this amazing World War II veteran, first African American Major League Baseball player, business executive and civil rights activist. Classroom exercises are plentiful examining the Civil Rights movement and its relationship to WWII, Athletics and American business practices.

Favorite Childhood Characters Abound! BCT's 2009/2010 Wee Folks Season

The Little Red Hen

The Little Red Hen works and works, while her lazy friends sleep all day... that's not fair! Learn with the Dog and the Cat that you don't get something for nothing!

Santa In Space

Santa Clause is beamed up to the planet Crayon by aliens who want to keep Santa for themselves. The Crayon's learn a lesson about sharing and the jolly old fellow gets home in time for Christmas.

Three Billy Goats Gruff

The three goats build a bridge but a mean troll takes over and won't let them cross. This tale proves that teamwork and good over evil always prevail.
